

Billy Sunday. Do get a copy as the article is wonderful.

This Friday I'm planning to go to Brighton for a few days. I'll go about the middle of May to establish myself there for another year, unless I get a buyer before the year is over.

My spring chores are nearly completed. To-day was rainy and tomorrow's prediction is for thunderstorms so I am being a bit delayed with the garden work - have a lot of weeds to pull that come up between the bricks. They will pull easily tho after the rains.

I'm taking Michener's The Source to the cottage to read. It's over 900 pages and slow reading but friends say it's a remarkable piece of research into Jewish and kindred origins.

Best wishes and love to you all.

Thanks for Upper Room Love
Aunt Edna

My chief reason for writing was to thank you for the Upper Room for Apr. & May. Thanks.
